

Name of activity		Climb and Abseil TDM	Reference number
Location of activity		TDM Crag	Ratio for activity			2: 12
Level of qualification needed to lead		RCI/SPA assessment and in-house training with separate assessment directed by MIC, MIA or IFMGA Mountain Guide
Level of qualification needed to second		RCI/SPA training or in-house training with separate assessment directed by MIC, MIA or IFMGA Mountain Guide
This document must be read in conjunction with		Standard Operational Procedures and generic single pitch crags risk assessment
Activity Description	Foreseeable Hazard	Who might be harmed and how?	L	S	R	Control measures	L	S	R
Approach	Road	South camp entrance and road on arrival at TDM crag presents a potential hazard from traffic on the road hit by car	2	3	5	Group control awareness of hazard briefing of the hazard by Instructor and vigilance	1	2	3
Whilst rigging the crag	Loose rock dislodged dropped equipment	Any member of the group at the bottom of the crag head injury face injury bodily impact	2	3	5	Group all wear PPE/FPE helmets correctly fitting in the hazard zone below the crag ensure group are not under the crag when being rigged	1	3	4

Activity Description	Foreseeable Hazard	Who might be harmed and how?	L	S	R	Control measures	L	S	R
Approach to Abseil	Slip on steps off route note on path	Any member of the group slips or fall bodily impact injury	2	2	4	Take group of a few up and down supervised member of staff spotting if needed additional care when wet and slippery	1	2	3
At the crag	Overhead tree branches or storm damage	All members of the group at the foot of the crag. Hit by falling branch bodily injury	2	3	5	Instructor check on arrival for any evidence of potential hazard branches	1	3	4
Written by: Mike Margeson						Date November 2011	Signature Mike Margeson
Reviewed by: Mike Margeson						Date November 2014	Signature Mike Margeson
Reviewed by: Mike Margeson						Date December 2017	Signature Mike Margeson
Reviewed by: Mike Margeson						Date November 2018	Signature Mike Margeson

National Centre, Lakeside

Activity Risk Assessment
Climbing TDM

YMCA National Centre, Lakeside Newby Bridge
LA12 8BD Telephone 015395 39000

